Chamber plans for summer

Plans for upcoming summer activities topped the agenda at last Wednesday's meeting of the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce, very much in keeping with the fine sunny day.

Operation of the Tourist Information Centre was touched on. Two Summer Temporary Employment Program positions will be applied for, as well as a position for a senior citizen, through the Lakeland Tourist Association.

Post cards will be available this summer, both at the Tourist Information Centre and at various businesses in town. A four picture format was decided upon, with photos of the mural, the Fort George Museum, a game farm elk and the Elk Point Chamber logo making up the display. An order of 2500 cards has been placed and will be available in plenty of time for the tourist season.

Price quotes for a full color version of last year's brochure were discussed, and it was agreed to look into Team Tourism funding for half of the cost of these.

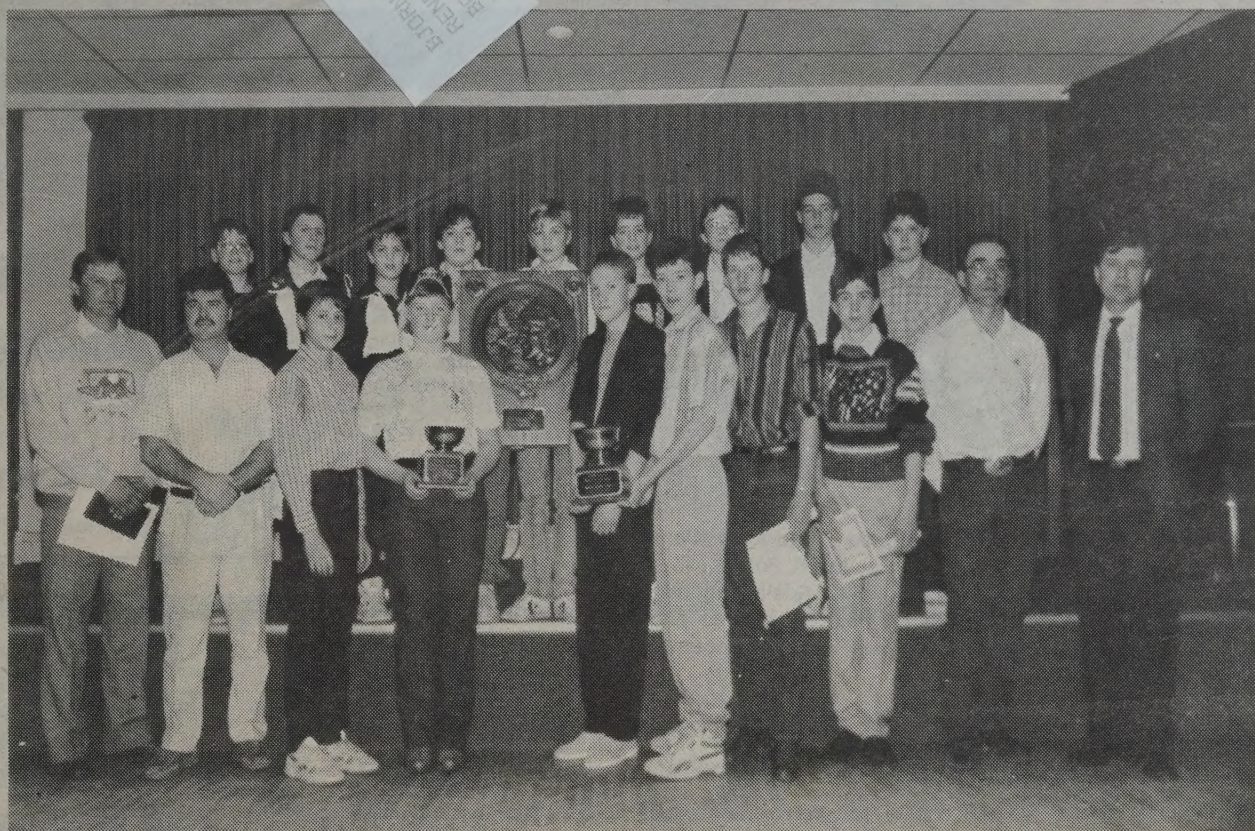

To further promote the Chamber and its tourism aspect, the Chamber considered setting up a booth to offer information on the area to those attending the Elk Point Auto Club's upcoming Auto Show in June. It was decided to look into the possibility of doing this.

The Chamber has discovered that gifts can sometimes become a burden. A few years ago, the group was given a heap of cut-down trees to be used as firewood for the Christmas Extravanzas, etc. At that time, the wood was located on a vacant lot. The lot was subsequently sold, and though wood was removed from the property for two Extravanza bonfires since that time, a large amount still remains. The lot owner has contacted the Chamber and asked that it be removed as it is in the way of landscaping. If anyone would like free firewood, please contact the Chamber Secretary, Vicki Brooker, at 724-4087, to arrange

Please attend this important meeting.

The coaches are Ron Dunlop, Lionel Romanchuk and Ron Piotrowski. Congratulations guys!

Good year reviewed by Council

Council and Board representatives outnumbered ratepayers 3 to 1 at Monday's Annual Meeting of the Town of Elk Point, leading Mayor Bruce Kleeberger to speculate that "things must be going so well that no one has anything to discuss with us."

Reports from the Mayor, Administrator Pat Vincent, committees and Board representatives indicated that things have, in fact, gone well over the 1989 fiscal year. Despite a zero increase in mill rate and heavy expenses to repair the water treatment plant, the Town finished the year with a $106,506 operating surplus, their largest ever. User-pay systems wherever possible and the Town's strong fiscal responsibility were cited by the Mayor as the reason for the surplus, which had been estimated in the 1989 budget at $28,000.

Finance and Administrative Committee Chairman Allan Frankiw noted excellent cooperation on the part of the ratepayers, who had paid 97.8 percent of their 1989 taxes by December 31 of last year.

Mayor Kleeberger, who now heads "the first full Council since 1986," reported a variety of occurrences over the past year, one of which was the amalgamation of the FCSS and Recreation Boards on January 1, 1990, to form the Community Services Board. He told his audience that Elk Point is off to a good start for 1990, with the year's budget completed earlier than ever before, in February, which will allow for an early start on spring projects, and more residential development already underway than for the entire year of 1989. A new raw water supply is being investigated for permanent use, with permission obtained to pump from the North Saskatchewan River again this spring. The Community Services Building Feasibility Study was completed and a need shown for a new facility of this sort. The Mayor noted that the position of Bylaw Enforcement Officer had been re-established as of Monday.

Administrator Pat Vincent was congratulated by the Mayor on the receipt of his Local Government Administrator designation, as a result of long years of study.

Vincent gave an overview of the Administration aspect of 1989, which involved maternity and sick leaves in his own department and a long term disability leave in the Public Works Department. He noted that employment programs had been utilized wherever possible. Salary increases brought Elk Point's Town staff on a level with other municipalities of the same size, and a new system of performance evaluations was undertaken. An employee award program for long service was implemented, with 8 employees to be recognized for 5 or more years of service this year. Vincent served as returning officer for the fall general election, and found it to be a unique experience, with a vacancy on Council occurring even before an election could take place. He noted that the election act is now being reviewed by the Province because of a number of problems which arose during the general election in various locations.

The Auditor's Report and Financial Statement, both prepared by Allen Warawa, CGA, were presented and reviewed briefly.

Committee reports were given. Allan Frankiw reported on behalf of the MD of St. Paul Foundation, noting a climb in occupation rates at Heritage Lodge, from 23 on January 1, 1989, to 29 on December 31, 1989, to 34 at present. He feels that the increase will help to decrease the Lodge's operational deficit significantly. Buckingham House Management Board rep Morris Cooper reported seven vacancies at present, up one from last year.

Adele Mandryk reported on behalf of the Community Services Board, touching on the amalgamation of FCSS and Recreation Boards, which now employ one full time director and a full time secretary. Enrollments are growing, with 26 children in playschool at the beginning of the year and 33 in two classes at the end. The parent nursery started with 31 children and 21 mothers, increasing to 34 children and 27 mothers during the year. Child Care Services started 1989 with 5 providers, dropped to one by the end of the year and is now up to 6, looking after 12 children. Meals on Wheels serves 6 seniors daily, and Welcome Wagon gave out 10 packages of information during 1989. On the recreation side, Mandryk noted CRC Grant cut-backs from $10 to $8 per capita in 1989, and grants received from the Elks Lodge for improvement

Earth Day Proclaimed

Deputy Mayor Allan Frankiw signed a proclamation declaring Sunday, April 22 as Earth Day in Elk Point at the April 2 meeting of Town Council. Councillor Adele Mandryk presented the petition and urged Elk Point citizens to get involved with this day of ecological awareness and concern.

Mandryk challenges residents

Earth Day 1990 will be a global demonstration of citizen concern for the protection of the Earth. More than 100 countries and one billion people will be involved, including Elk Point.

Councillor Adele Mandryk challenges all residents of Elk Point to seek out environmental eyesores and unsound ecological practices, in the community, and together with a brief explanation of what could be done to remedy the situation, send your ideas to Council.

This is one of many activities planned by the Town of Elk Point, Community Services, the Elk Point Public Library and Norcen Energy Resources Limited to promote "Earth Day", Sunday April 22, 1990.

Locally, the Town has proclaimed April 22 as Earth Day, a step in the right direction toward educating all citizens in the importance of acting in an environmentally sensitive fashion by: reducing, reusing and recycling, conserving energy and water, using efficient transportation, and adopting more ecologically sound lifestyles.

Community Services is organizing a Poster Contest to celebrate Earth Day 1990. Posters with an "Ecology and Environmental Conservation" theme are being solicited in four categories; Kindergarten-Grade 3, Grade 4-6, Grade 7-9 and Grade 10-12/ There will be prizes of $ 25.00 for the winner in each category and all entrants will receive a certificate of participation. Norcen Energy Resources Ltd. is sponsoring the prizes. Call Stephen Montgomery at 724-3800 for more information.

Posters will be on display in the Elk Point Public Library Program room until April 25, 1990. They will be judged and prizes given out at the Library's Annual Author Reading, featuring the Ruthless Writers, on the evening of April 25 at 7:15 p.m. at the Library. All citizens are welcome to attend.

Councillor Mandryk notes that individuals can do a lot for our community, by working harder to reduce the amount of garbage they create and by choosing non-polluting cleaning products to help keep water sources clean. For real headway to be made on environmental concerns, people have to choose alternative products that are less wasteful and damaging to the environment.

She points out that the Elk Point Co-op and Capitol Drugs I.D.A. should be commended for stocking "The Soap Factory" brand, environmentally sensitive, non-polluting cleaning products. Individuals can choose to support these initiatives by purchasing these products at both stores. Choosing non-polluting cleaning products is one way you can help solve the problem of wastes in our water, rather than adding to it.

Councillor Mandryk asks "What will you do for Earth?" If nothing else, ponder this question on April 22, 1990, and remember that "Every Day is Earth Day!"

for its removal. Please note that some of this wood is in the form of entire felled trees and must be cut up before removal.

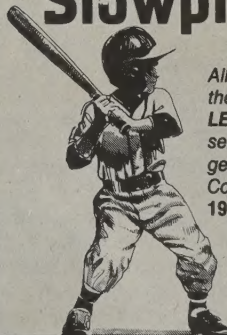

A volunteer is still needed to replace Bill Currey on the Community Futures Board. Anyone interested could contact President Millie Orr for further details. The position involves one meeting per month.

A request was received by the Chamber to participate in the present Lioness campaign for recycling of newspapers and paper products, by a donation toward a bin. Various members of the Chamber noted that service clubs they belong to had already donated toward bins, so there may be a sufficient number already accounted for. The Chamber agreed to send a letter congratulating the Lionesses on their initiatives in promoting ecological awareness in Elk Point and area.

District Agriculturalist Terry Holmgren was on hand and noted that next week is National Soil Conservation Week. He urged the members to watch for special Soil Conservation Week placemats which will be used in local restaurants during the week.

President Orr reminded members that anyone, including the general public, with concerns regarding A-1 CableVision should attend the April 21 meeting, at which a representative from that firm will be in attendance.

Elk Point Slowpitch Meeting

All teams interested in entering the "ELK POINT SLOWPITCH LEAGUE" for 1990, please send a team representative to a general meeting at the Old Courthouse, Thursday, April 19, 1990 at 8:00 p.m.

Minor Hockey wraps up

By Len Gagne
Staff Writer

The Elk Point Minor Hockey season put the finishing touches on one of their most successful seasons Friday night.

Over 300 people gathered at the Elk's Hall in Elk Point to honor the young athletes.

Minor hockey association president Dave Kenyon was extremely pleased with the season's accomplishments.

"Elk Point minor hockey has had an outstanding year.

"Each and every team achieved goals far beyond their belief at the start of the season.

"We had two league champions, we had two zone champions and we won many other trophies, awards and whatnot."

Although Elk Point minor hockey excelled in a number of areas, Kenyon feels that there was definitely a high point to the season.

"I believe the highlight of the year was our Pee wee team being awarded the Fair Play award for Northeastern Alberta."

The "Fair Play" award is an award dedicated towards the reintroduction of fair play and fun into minor hockey.

The award, which was created by sculptor Rudiger Schmidt, was inaugurated to award teams that demonstrate fair play, exhibit honest rivalry, courteous relations and graceful acceptance of the results.

The players alone are not responsible for their team image.

Coaches, parents and fans contribute directly to fair play.

Los Angeles King's captain Wayne Gretzky has endorsed the award granting the North Eastern Alberta Recreation Association (NEARA) permission to use his likeness on the bronze sculptured award.

Bryan Perkins of the NEARA presented the coveted award to Pee wee Elks coach Ron Dunlop on behalf of the association.

The Elk Point Pee wees are the first to receive the inaugural award.

Although Elk Point minor hockey completed one of its more successful years, Kenyon felt that the best is yet to come.

"Elk Point minor hockey has been growing by leaps and bounds over the last couple of years and this year we had a big increase in enrollment.

"This year we had around 140 kids enrolled so for a town of only 1,400, that is a pretty high percentage."

Kenyon felt that the reason for the high enrollment is due to the contributions made by the community.

"The support is unreal, it's a real enthusiastic bunch of people that work with us."

Although Elk Point Minor Hockey had its share of success over the past year, it was also struck by tragedy.

A minute of silence was honored in memory of Alex Kurash.

Kurash, who passed away suddenly last year, devoted countless hours towards Elk Point Minor Hockey.

Town of Elk Point

of the north ball diamond and from the Municipal Recreation and Tourism Areas grant fund for development at the recreational land.

Ms Mandryk also reported on the Library Board's operations, with increases noted in both circulation and membership, and a new part time position for and Assistant Librarian filled by Diane Fraess. An average of 15 children attended the weekly story time sessions, while a total of 93 children were involved in the summer reading program. The library has increased their collection of materials for young adults substantially over the year. A bid for the headquarters of the Northern Lights Library System failed, but this is somewhat less of a blow since the system's establishment has been put on hold by financial restraints.

Allan Frankiw reported on the Tourism Action Committee, which processed one application for funds for the Mural Park during the year. The committee is now working on signage and an in-town recreational vehicle overnight camping facility. The Adopt-A-Hydrant program is also underway.

Morris Cooper reported on the Utilities Committee, noting a very capable staff is in place. Allan Frankiw, who formerly headed the committee, added comments on the water treatment plant problems which arose from the use of unacceptable raw water. The traffic problem in the school area was also addressed briefly.

Municipal Hospital Board representative Orest Capjack had discouraging news to impart. While funding is available to get the nursing home to the contract document stage, tendering and construction have been deferred for at least two years because of the unavailability of funds. Capjack said the newly elected board, with John Mohyluk as chairman, is functioning smoothly, and the hospital is operating within one percent of their budget. Dr. Frank Estey has written to the NADC regarding our need for an additional doctor. A new Director of Nursing has been hired and will start May 15. Capjack was questioned by Council regarding the recent request by local Ambulance Service owner Fred Lambright for town subsidization, and told those present that the board had not been approached on the matter.

Board of Education representative Janice Van Maarion reported a challenging year, with the completion of the addition to Elk Point Elementary School, and the go-ahead given for the new addition. Blueprints for this are nearing completion, with tendering scheduled for the end of April. Construction will hopefully start in June. Ms Van Maarion was questioned regarding rumors of further increases in ECS enrollment in the coming year, which she said had not been addressed at Board level, and rumors of teacher cutbacks, which she noted will be looked at. She also was asked about the possible effect the closure of Derwent School would have on Elk Point. This matter has not been decided yet, as efforts to keep the school open continue.

The lone question from the (by then) lone ratepayer dealt with the north subdivision. The Town had been aware that they could purchase the property at its current market value for recreational purposes, but a new program was announced last Friday which makes the land available to the municipality at that cost for any use, with the stipulation that if the land is then sold at a profit, a portion of the profit will go to Alberta Mortgage and Housing.

Hello Heinsburg

A.G.T. will be trenching buried cable and installing associated equipment in the Heinsburg area this summer.

Construction will commence soon, with project completion scheduled for the end of October, 1990. All construction zones will be clearly marked, and we ask drivers to use caution when approaching and driving through construction sites. New cables will be installed in the Public Right of Way, and some minor service interruptions may occur. A.G.T. will make every effort to avoid them.

This new cable system is necessary to provide future Individual Line Service to Heinsburg, however we do regret any inconvenience the installation process may cause.

Thank You

Bob Orchison

Manager Outside Plant, Vegreville.

In Our View

Congratulations all

Congratulations to the Elk Point Pee Wees, the very first winners of the prestigious new Fair Play Award. Congratulations also to the coaches, parents, fans and Minor Hockey Association that helped these boys to win.

The award criteria focused on whether the teams involved demonstrated fair play, exhibited honest rivalry, maintained courteous relations with their opponents and accepted the results, win or lose, gracefully. The players are not the only people who contribute to a team's image, as coaches, parents and fans influence the attitude a team exhibits. The team was evaluated both on and off the ice, by referees who officiated at the games and by scouts from the Fair Play committee who attended the games.

The goal of the awards is to reintroduce fair play and fun to minor hockey. This in itself is a great endeavor, as for many years, an attitude of 'we've gotta win, whatever it takes' has been creeping in. Kids have been swept off the ice by their coaches before team pictures could be taken for the paper, because that team only came second. Boys close to their teenage years have been reduced to tears by the cutting comments of coaches when their team failed to win. Parents have screamed at coaches and officials when the game did not go to their liking, and have later berated their children all the way home from the arena because they didn't play as well as the parents would like. Many, many boys have spent entire games on the bench because they weren't fast enough to score, or tough enough to repel the other team. For some kids, hockey became something that their parents made them do, like homework, and it got to be just about as much fun.

Hopefully, this award is a sign of a new dawning of sportsmanlike attitude, where the game is the thing, not the win. If this incentive can result in children once again enjoying Canada's favorite winter sport, maybe there is hope for the future of minor hockey after all.

Harbingers of Spring

This long ago photo by Charles Magnusson captures the hope of spring as expressed by the hardy prairie crocus, whose fuzzy purple blooms appear not long after the snow disappears.

Alberta Trails

April's meandering thoughts

By Irene Magnusson

This week has been a bit mixed-up for me, what with spring setting in for earnest, and a long-awaited visit from my son Dennis and his wife Lynda, as they stopped by on their way to Vancouver. After three years living near Ottawa, his company sends him back to the western shores. I think he is not displeased, and Lynda, too, has called the Pacific shores 'home' for too long to easily leave it. We had a lovely visit.

All their worldly goods, with the exception of what they could easily carry in the little car, had been consigned to the moving vans. Even the pussy cat, left at a kennel, will be shipped by air to them, to co-incide with their arrival at the new home. Well - we knew modern man does not travel in a covered wagon any more.

The brief visit only whetted my appetite for more hours together, so here I am thinking of how soon I can plan a trip to 'B.C.', and how long I can stay. There are, of course, many others I would not want to miss a visit with, while I'm in that province.

Now - let me see: clean up the yard, plant the garden, all that pruning and trimming, finish cleaning my house...it will be awhile. But I'll make it!

Speaking of raking dead grass, first the snow has got to go. There it sits, a long ridge of it down the drive and along the walk, hard as ice. IT IS ice. Thrown up with the snow-blower, packed hard, and shaded by house and tall spruce, that last ridge of snow could well be there until May. Meanwhile, I can look at the seed catalogues again, and make decisions, while contemplating that new red rototiller in the shed. Will it, indeed, be easier to wrestle than the old one?

So far, this lovely spring, I have seen Richardson ground squirrels (gophers), crows, a couple of flocks of geese, one large flock of ducks winging rapidly westward, plus a couple of ponds carrying ducks in lesser numbers. Last week, as I was coming home from town, I noticed a dark object, a log I thought, sticking up from a rock pile in Ference's field east of my place. But it hadn't been there before, so I slowed and looked closer. As I watched and realized what it was, it rose majestically and flapped away - a large, white-headed, white-tailed bald eagle. Not ordinarily seen in the fields, bald eagles are summer residents of the Lakeland, and I've often seen them around Moose Lake, Pinehurst Lake, etc., in the summertime. I felt quite privileged to see one near my home, on this bright first week of April.

Perched on a fenceline, looking small and lost, were a pair of bluebirds, one blue, one grey. Of course I bragged of seeing them, and was told by our friendly postmaster that he had seen a half-dozen, days before, hardly believing his eyes, for the end of March IS early for bluebirds on our windowsills.

The diminishing of the roadside snow banks has exposed a number of porcupines, too, but they are not migratory - they are just too slow-moving to go against the speed of automobiles, and have lost (everything) in the race. This morning, on the lilac bush by my window, perched a slate-colored junco. I know them of old: as soon as another one comes along they will start flying madly about, chasing each other, and probably slam-bang themselves into my window, at great risk to their lives. I quickly closed the lace panels, in hopes that will deter them. Too many birds have taken my window panes for another patch of trees and sky, as they see it reflected, to their detriment - and mine.

Last week, when there was yet enough snow for their scurrying feet a pair of squirrels raced madly about, one in pursuit of the other, flying over the garden and through the woods with the greatest of speed. I have a ringside seat to watch their antics.

Checking how the creeks are coming, I drove down through the valley, where the Atimoswe (Dog Rump) Creek flows, to find it very turbulent, charging along in fine spring wrath, brown water boiling furiously over the grass and sticks and rocks along the sides, as well as in the creekbed itself. High water may have already passed, still there is plenty left to go. The little sloughs along the way are quite full, although I have often seen them fuller. Dugouts, too, are filling well. I hope enough remains for all the growth we would so love to see in the coming months.

Before the coming week is past, we should have had robins, and a few other summer birds, arriving. Butterflies and moths are about, not in great numbers, but a few. There is a wide strip of blue along the lakeshore, where the water is bulging up - and definitely green grass shoots (yes, quackgrass!) next to my south wall, hollyhock leaves are spreading their ruffles, and a few foolish day-lilies have erupted their shoots.

What with the pussy willows swelling the tassles sprouting on the poplars, and the hope of crocuses on the hillsides, I guess we have to accept that spring, at last, is here.

On the week-end of March 16, 14 students and 4 supervisors from F.G. Miller enjoyed a ski-trip to Marmot Basin in Jasper. Thanks to Higgins Travel, the accommodations were very enjoyable. The weatherman also co-operated allowing us to have two great days of skiing.

A special thanks to the supervisors - Mrs. Coral Tremblay, Mrs. Debra Poulin and Mr. Ernie Poulin is extended from the students, as well as to Mr. Joe Brunner who drove the bus and Mr. Jim Hawkins who helped in the organization of the trip.

Let's try that again

Somehow the winners and runners-up of the 'A' Side in last week's Last Hurrah hockey tournament were mixed up. As you can see by the size of the trophies in the photos, the Elk Point Old Peckers, sponsored by Clareview Driving Range, received the win, and the Diggers received the runner up trophy. Our apologies to both teams for the mixup.

New tennis club raising funds

The brand new Elk Point and District Tennis Club is off to a good start, with a site tentatively picked out for courts, and fundraising underway toward their construction.

The group had their first meeting on March 21 at F. G. Miller High School, with 12 members in attendance. One of their first matters of business will be to apply to become a society to facilitate fund raising and grant application.

Jim Hawkins was elected President of the new club, and has already been in contact with the Agricultural Society and obtained their support regarding a site to the west of the A. G. Ross Arena. Now, Hawkins says, the Club must approach the Town and see if Council could request a change in the Municipal Recreation and Tourism Areas agreement to allow the courts to be built in town rather than at the recreation land. A sum of $10,000 was allocated to tennis courts in the MRTA.

Hawkins feels the courts will cost close to $35,000, depending on the amount of community labor which is utilized in their construction. Plans are for two courts enclosed by a fence, with the eventual addition of a club house.

The Club would eventually like to be able to provide lessons to introduce more local residents to this enjoyable sport, and Hawkins feels this could be done by obtaining a summer employment grant for a person with this skill. By starting with teaching children the basics of tennis, "we could build the game from the ground up," he noted, and "keep the courts going and active."

Fundraising for the Club kicked off last week when local UGG Delegate Steve Seniuk presented Hawkins with $100 toward the courts. Hawkins said that the club will be looking for assistance in raising funds and will be holding various fundraising activities to get them closer to their goal.

The next meeting of the Tennis Club will be on Wednesday, April 25 at 7:00 p.m. at F. G. Miller High School.

To further promote the sport in Elk

Point, Elk Point and District Further Education will be holding a one day tennis course early in May, and will need 8 adult participants. Please phone Further Ed for details on this.

Tennis Club Kick Off

Steve Seniuk of UGG presents Elk Point and District Tennis Club President Jim Hawkins with a crisp $100 bill to start off the fundraising for the newly established club's project of building two fenced tennis courts in Elk Point.

Touch The Earth, Feel The Future

As farmers, we give our children more than values and self-reliance. There comes a time when we pass on the family farm. More than ever before, our children's future depends on careful stewardship of our most precious resource ... the land. Environmental protection. We've been hearing the words for a long time. Now, we're listening ... and we're doing. Conservation 2000 is an Alberta Wheat Pool action plan bringing farmers together to share their concerns and their ideas on soil conservation. Conservation 2000 clubs are springing up all across Alberta. There's an open invitation to farmers who are ready to tackle a tough issue with real-world solutions. Together, we'll work to leave our children land that's worth farming and a future worth growing up for.

Soil conservation ... It's time. It's our future.

What's news at the library?

During National Book Festival Week, April 21 - 28, the Elk Point Library will be proudly hosting readings by five of our own Elk Point "Ruthless Writers". The readings will be held at 7:30 p.m. on April 25th in the library. At 7:15 p.m., a presentation will be made to the winners of the "Earth Day" poster contest. Come and encourage our local writers and be here to support the concept of "Earth Day".

The Easter pre-school storytime party was a great success. About 25 children attended. Stories, finger plays and the puppet show "Max's Chocolate Chicken" were presented. During the stories the Easter Bunny hid many brightly colored eggs in the library. After the stories the children had an exciting easter egg hunt. Eggs were decorated by the children and dipped in dye by their mothers. A great time was had by all.

NEW BOOKS

"ARMY WITHOUT BANNERS" by John Beames - with a light comic touch, author John Beames deftly portrays a vivid picture of the process of prairie settlement in what is now northern Saskatchewan around the turn of the century. "THE SHIP WHO SANG" - a new science fiction book by well known author Anne McCaffrey. "CLASSIC CHILDREN'S GAMES" - for children ages 2 to 10 by Vivienne Sernaque. Samples of games are: One Potato, Two Potato; Duck, Duck, Goose; Ringolevio; Tiddlywinks; Blindman's Bluff; King of the Mountains; Musical Chairs; Red Rover and many more. Children's book "ROTTEN RALPH" by Jack Gantos - Ralph, a very, very, nasty cat, finally sees the error of his ways...or does he? "EXPLORE

THE SKY BY DAY" by Terence Dickinson - The Equinox guide to weather and the atmosphere. From the award-winning creators of Chickadee magazine over 30 great science experiments any kid can do, "DR. ZED'S SCIENCE SURPRISES". From the creative genius, Isaac Asimov, who gave the Foundation, Robot, and Empire sagas comes a stunning new world of science fiction suspense... "NEMESIS".

Lioness Environment Tips

Composting

We've covered why you should compost in the last issue, now the question is: What can I compost? One third of your household garbage can be composted! Yard wastes such as fallen leaves, chemically untreated grass clippings, weeds before they seed and the remains of disease-free garden plants, make excellent compost. You can also compost kitchen scraps such as fruit and vegetable peels, egg shells, coffee grounds,

Metelytsia Dancers travel to Prince Albert

The Elk Point Metelytsia dancers will be travelling to Prince Albert, Saskatchewan on Thursday, April 19 to take part in the 3rd annual Ukrainian dance competitions being held there. Competitions take place Thursday through Saturday, with the all-star performance on Saturday night. We have 14 entries, including Poltavski, Hutzul, regional, and character dances. Last year we entered 9 dances, winning medals with all of them, as well as 3 overall awards. We hope to make an excellent showing again this year.

Our 11th ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT will be held on Tuesday, May 1, at 7:00 p.m. The concert will be held in the F.G. Miller school gym. Admission will be adults - $3, students - $1, under 6-free.

We have a full evening of performances, with dances from the Poltarski, Hutzul, Transcarpathian and Bukovian regions. Our dancers include 4 year old pre-beginners, 18 year old seniors, and our adult class.

The quality of dance in all these groups is outstanding, and our concert will be better than ever. We invite everyone out to share this showcase with us.
